

THE VEDAVANI

A Monthly Newsletter

February, 2024 / Vol 3/ Issue:4

Vision of the College: To uphold the culture heritage and the best ethos of our institution

“EDUCATION IS NOT THE FILLING OF A PAIL, BUT THE LIGHTING OF A FIRE”

-RABINDRANATH TAGORE

Principal's Desk

Dear Students, Faculty, and Community Members,

I am delighted to share some recent and upcoming highlights from our college. Our steadfast commitment to enhancing the strength and reputation of our institution remains unwavering. This effort not only fosters stronger community ties but also ignites interest among prospective students, underscoring our dedication to empowering futures through education and shaping tomorrow's leaders and innovators. On February 21, 2024, the Department of Telugu celebrated Mother Language Day with great enthusiasm. It was a day to emphasize the significance of preserving and honoring our mother tongue. I had the pleasure of addressing the gathering and sharing my thoughts on the importance of our linguistic heritage.

Dr. G. Janardhana Naidu
Principal

News Inside

1. Admission campaigning
2. International Mother language day

International Mother language day 21 Feb 2024

On February 21, 2024, the Department of Telugu celebrated Mother Language Day with great enthusiasm. Dr. G. Janardhana Naidu, the Principal of the college, emphasized the significance of preserving and honoring one's mother tongue. The program was initiated by Dr. V. Kannam Naidu, Head of the Department of Telugu, who addressed the gathering and highlighted the importance of Mother Language Day. The event was further enlivened by students K. Vijay Kumar, K. Dhananjaya, and Suneel Kumar, whose captivating performances of Telugu songs and poems left a lasting impression on the audience. All the faculty Sri. P.Goureeswara Rao, Smt.Ch.A.A.S.K.G.Bhavani,Smt. B.Sulochana, Sri. T.Ramana have participated and expressed their views on Mother language day in the program.

